Putting Books into the Hands of Those Who Need Them Most

Your generous donation of $5.00 per bookplate will help purchase new books for a person who might not otherwise have any books.

All you have to do is purchase bookplates for $5.00 each, and Books for Bright Futures will use the money it raises to purchase books. Before each book is donated, a sticker will be placed in the book noting who it was donated in honor of. You can purchase a bookplate in anyone's name – yourself, a loved one, or maybe the person who taught you the joy of reading.

Books for Bright Futures places books directly into the hands of children and adults—your bookplate purchase helps brighten their future.

Your donation is tax-deductible. Please keep this form for your records.
