

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF WASHINGTON

2020 – 2021 RESOLUTION READ
PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Through its Resolution Read initiative, the Junior League of Washington (JLW) facilitates the distribution of new books to children in the Washington metropolitan region.

Resolution Read provides new books to programs focused on the importance of

- reading out loud to children;
- placing age-appropriate books in the homes of children; and
- providing more books to schools and libraries.

By addressing these three areas, the JLW will continue to make a lasting impact in the Washington, DC metropolitan community by fostering a passion for books and reading where there is a need for support. Annually, JLW provides thousands of new books to children through Resolution Read.

Requests for books must meet at least one of the three children's reading focus areas:

- (1) lack of reading materials in the home; or
- (2) lack of reading materials and resources in school classrooms and libraries; or
- (3) lack of exposure to reading aloud (ages 0-5th grade).

Book applications will be accepted on a rolling basis beginning in August 2020, and must be received a minimum of two months prior to the book distribution event. A limited number of applications will be selected.

Proposals will be evaluated based on the extent to which books will be used to make an impact on improving literacy and the availability of volunteer opportunities for JLW members at book donation event(s), if applicable. Availability of funding and requested titles will also be taken into consideration. For a full list of decision criteria, please see page 2.

The Junior League of Washington (JLW) is proud to focus our financial and volunteer resources on the complex issues of literacy in the greater metropolitan area of the District of Columbia. JLW is committed to working with nonprofit organizations in the Washington, DC metropolitan area that make a significant difference in the area of literacy by continuing to provide books and trained volunteers.

2020 – 2021 RESOLUTION READ
APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Programs interested in receiving books from the Junior League of Washington will receive preference if they:

- Operate programs within the Washington, DC metropolitan area.
- Provide a minimum of 3 volunteer hours for Junior League volunteers (3 volunteers for 1 hour each, 1 volunteer for 3 hours, or some combination thereof), if applicable. Preference will be given to organizations that provide opportunities for reading aloud to children. Volunteer opportunities should be primarily in the evening and/or on weekends.
- Distribute books for children to take home as a part of a literacy program. Preference will be given to organizations that use the books within the program to improve literacy (such as in book clubs or with reading buddies).
- Request books available on First Book (www.fbmarketplace.org). Requests for books not available on First Book may be considered if a clear rationale is provided for the need for the book, and if the program has a demonstrable impact on improving literacy.
- Work with children ages 0 through 5th grade.
- Clearly demonstrate their constituents' need for the books.
- Demonstrate how their program is fostering a passion for books and reading where there is a need for support.
- Provide documented evidence, including metrics and statistics as available, of improved literacy as a result of their program.
- Allow the Junior League of Washington to list your organization as a partner on its website.

The Junior League of Washington's mission is to promote voluntarism, develop the potential of women, and improve communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. We seek to partner with organizations whose mission and activities align with our own.
