

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF
WASHINGTON

2023 – 2024 RESOLUTION READ
PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Through its Resolution Read initiative, the Junior League of Washington (JLW) facilitates the distribution of new books to children in the Washington, DC metropolitan region.

Resolution Read provides new books to programs focused on the importance of:

- reading out loud to children;
- placing age-appropriate books in the homes of children; and
- providing books to schools and libraries.

By addressing these three areas, JLW will continue to make a lasting impact in the Washington, DC metropolitan community by fostering a passion for books and reading where there is a need for support. Annually, JLW provides thousands of new books to children through Resolution Read.

Requests for books must meet at least one of the three children's reading focus areas:

- (1) lack of exposure to reading aloud (ages 0-5th grade);
- (2) lack of reading materials in the home; or,
- (3) lack of reading materials and resources in school classrooms and libraries.

Resolution Read book applications will be accepted on a rolling basis beginning in mid-July 2023 and must be received a minimum of eight weeks prior to the book distribution event. A limited number of applications will be selected.

Proposals will be evaluated based on the extent to which books will be used to make an impact on improving literacy and, if applicable, the availability of volunteer opportunities for JLW members at book donation event(s). Availability of funding and requested titles will also be taken into consideration. For a full list of decision criteria, please see page 2.

The Junior League of Washington is proud to focus our financial and volunteer resources on the complex issues of literacy in the greater metropolitan area of the District of Columbia. JLW is committed to working with nonprofit organizations in the Washington, DC metropolitan area that make a significant difference in the area of literacy by continuing to provide books and trained volunteers.

2023 – 2024 RESOLUTION READ APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Programs interested in receiving books from the Junior League of Washington (JLW) will receive preference if they:

- Operate programs within the Washington, DC metropolitan area.
- Provide a minimum of three volunteer hours for JLW volunteers (three volunteers for one hour each, one volunteer for three hours, or some combination thereof), if applicable. Preference will be given to organizations that provide opportunities for reading aloud to children. Volunteer opportunities should take place primarily in the evening and/or on weekends.
- Distribute books for children to take home as a part of a literacy program. Preference will be given to organizations that use the books within the program to improve literacy (such as in book clubs or with reading buddies).
- Request books available on First Book (www.fbmarketplace.org). Requests for books not available on First Book may be considered if a clear rationale is provided for the need for the book, and if the program has a demonstrable impact on improving literacy.
- Work with children ages 0 through 5th grade.
- Clearly demonstrate their constituents' need for the books.
- Demonstrate how their program is fostering a passion for books and reading where there is a need for support.
- Provide documented evidence, including metrics and statistics as available, of improved literacy as a result of their program.
- Allow the Junior League of Washington to list your organization as a partner on its website.

The Junior League of Washington's mission is to be an organization of women whose Mission is to advance women's leadership for meaningful community impact through volunteer action, collaboration, and training. We seek to partner with organizations whose mission and activities align with our own.

2023 – 2024 RESOLUTION READ
APPLICATION COVER PAGE

Please be sure to complete all narrative fields in the application.

This cover page, plus the application and any required appendices, must be emailed to resolutionread@jlw.org in a PDF file with the name of the organization in the subject line. All required information must be received to consider your application complete. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis through April 2024. While we strive to review requests and fill awards quickly, applications must be received at least eight weeks prior to the date of your event/book distribution in order to receive books in a timely fashion.

Due to the growing interest in our program, and so that we can accommodate as many organizations as possible, this year we are limiting each application to a total of $500 worth of books. If your organization is in need of more books beyond this limit, please submit another application to fulfill the needs beyond the $500 limit.
